

ESL Exercises: design

Sure! Here's a set of ESL grammar and word formation exercises for the lexeme design (verb), with practice sentences targeting various grammatical forms, always using the verb part of speech.

---

design (verb)

Practice Sentences:

1. The architect will ___ by the end of the week to meet the client's needs. [design]
  2. Many of these buildings were designed in the 1970s to look very modern. [design]
  3. They have ___ a new app that helps with online shopping. Are you excited? [design]
  4. By next month, the project will ___, and the team can begin building. [design]
  5. This chair is more functional than it looks; it's been carefully ___ over the years. [design]
-

Answer Key:

1. The architect will design by the end of the week to meet the client's needs. [design]
  2. Many of these buildings were designed in the 1970s to look very modern. [design]
  3. They have designed a new app that helps with online shopping. Are you excited? [design]
  4. By next month, the project will have been designed, and the team can begin building. [design]
  5. This chair is more functional than it looks; it's been carefully designed over the years. [design]
-

Let me know if you'd like these exercises in printable format or adapted for different ESL levels.